

Evangelist Karen A. Cole

Evangelist Karen A. Cole was born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland. She graduated from Patterson High School in 1979 and attended Essex Community College. Evangelist Karen A. Cole received her Bachelor in Church Ministry from The Sure Foundation Theological Institute.

She currently serves as an Evangelistic Leader at DIDASKO Ministries.

In 1999, she was Consecrated and Licensed as an Evangelist, under the Leadership of Bishop Cornelius Franklin Showell of First Apostolic Faith Church, during that time “The Lord called her to the Prayer and Deliverance Ministry” where she operated for many years. Through great struggles, adversity and bouts with the Devil, In spite of them all, she learned that GOD was a GREAT DELIVERER!

One night in prayer, “she heard the Voice of the Lord” saying “Go, In Set The Captives Free”!

For the past 14 years, Evangelist Cole has continued with the calling given to her by God to “Go, And Set The Captives Free”. Evangelist Cole knows that Heaven has the answers to every Situation and Circumstances, if we would just only “KNEEL TO HEAVEN” No matter the circumstance, she continues to say, “Hallelujah To Jesus!”

Evangelist Karen Cole has been married to Brother Michael Cole for 31 years. They have been blessed with two children.
